

U-M Ann Arbor Campus
Student Mandatory Weekly Testing, Daily Symptom Checking, and Quarantine/Isolation
Policy
(As of February 5, 2021)

Overview

Members of the U-M Ann Arbor student community are expected to comply with health and safety laws, orders, ordinances, regulations or health and safety guidance adopted by the University as it relates to public health crises, including COVID-19. To support the health and safety of the U-M community, a number of protocols related to COVID testing, symptom checking, and quarantine/isolation practices are required for U-M Ann Arbor campus students.

Please note that the requirements in this policy are in addition to other public health guidance and expectations set forth in other applicable policies, including the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities. This policy is subject to change as the pandemic continues to evolve.

Policy

The scope of this policy includes all U-M Ann Arbor students with any in-person presence on U-M Ann Arbor campus. This includes those students who live in the residence halls, are registered for an in-person/hybrid class, work or conduct research on campus, and/or use on-campus facilities and buildings (dining halls, Rec Sports, libraries, the Union, e.g.) in the Winter 2021 term.

Students meeting the above criteria are subject to the following requirements::

- Weekly COVID Testing: receive a COVID-19 test on a weekly basis. All COVID-19 testing must be administered by the University.
- Daily Symptom Checking: self-administer the symptom checker via ResponsiBLUE on a daily basis.
- Quarantine/Isolation: Participate and maintain isolation and/or quarantine, as instructed by a health care provider or public health officials, which may include U-M EHS.

Sanctions

Members of the Ann Arbor student community are expected to comply with health and safety laws, orders, ordinances and regulations, and health and safety guidance adopted by the University as it relates to public health crises, including COVID-19. Failure to comply with this policy may result in immediate action, including the implementation of interim measures needed to address public health concerns, such as termination of access to facilities. The requirements of this Policy will otherwise utilize the procedures found in the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities, and violations that occur in connection with Michigan Housing will be resolved through the Housing Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution Process.
